

Dear FCC commission:

I ask that you oppose the weakening of Indiana's law on anyone calling people to sell items. It has been very nice since this was instituted because before we had calls constantly and many times it was someone from another country that could barely speak English.

Thanks

Alan